TALK IT OVER

THE WAY | SESSION 6: EVERYTHING

For the eight weeks of The Way group study, the weekly Talk It Over Guide will reflect the content from the group study.

CHECKING IN

- Growing up, what messages did you hear about money, success, and possessions?
- When you hear the word generosity, what comes to mind?

MEMORY VERSE

The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it;

PSALM 24:1 NIV

Biblical generosity is informed and fueled by the acknowledgment that God owns it all. We are simply managers. When we adopt that posture, we begin to view everything we “own” as a tool to further the agenda of our King.

1. EVERYTHING BELONGS TO GOD

1 Chronicles 29:11-12; Psalm 24:1 · Everything in heaven and earth belongs to God. Wealth, honor, influence, and opportunity come from Him. We are managers, not owners. Stewardship begins when we recognize that everything has been entrusted to us by God.

2. GENEROSITY REDEFINED

Matthew 6:24 · Jesus said no one can serve two masters. You cannot serve both God and money. Generosity begins with deciding who will be our true master. Biblical generosity is not primarily about giving money. It is about surrendering our hearts to God.

3. GENEROSITY REVEALS WHO WE TRUST

1 Timothy 6:17 · Our hope should not be placed in wealth. Our hope should be placed in God. What we trust most often determines how we live and how we give. Generosity becomes an expression of faith because it demonstrates confidence in God's provision rather than our own resources.

4. FOLLOWERS OF JESUS LIVE DIFFERENTLY

Luke 12:15 · Life does not consist in the abundance of possessions. Followers of Jesus resist the pull of greed. The world measures success by possessions. Jesus measures success by faithfulness. Generosity reflects a Kingdom perspective rather than a worldly one. People who follow Jesus manage resources differently because they trust God more than material things.

BOTTOM LINE

FOLLOWERS OF JESUS UNDERSTAND A SIMPLE BUT LIFE-CHANGING TRUTH: GOD OWNS IT ALL.

When we recognize that everything belongs to Him, generosity becomes a natural response of trust, gratitude, and worship.

DISCOVERY QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think it is difficult for people to see themselves as managers rather than owners?
2. How does Psalm 24:1 challenge the way our culture views possessions and success?
3. Jesus said we cannot serve both God and money. What are some subtle ways money can compete for our devotion?
4. How does generosity reveal what we truly trust?
5. What is the difference between trusting wealth and trusting God?
6. In what ways do followers of Jesus live differently than the culture when it comes to possessions and generosity?
7. What is one area where God may be inviting you to trust Him more deeply with what He has entrusted to you?

PRAYER DIRECTION

Spend time praying in groups of two or three. Pray specifically:

- Thank God for His provision and faithfulness.
- Ask God to help you view everything you have as belonging to Him.
- Pray for freedom from greed, fear, and comparison.
- Ask God to increase your trust in Him rather than in possessions.
- Pray for a heart of generosity that reflects the character of Jesus.

For those uncomfortable praying aloud, simply share one prayer request and allow someone else to pray for you.

WEEKLY CHALLENGE

Choose one intentional act of generosity this week. It may involve your finances, your time, your encouragement, your hospitality, or your service. As you give, remind yourself: “It all belongs to God.”

DIVING DEEPER

As you read this week’s daily devotions ...

- Notice what Scripture teaches about ownership and stewardship.
- Reflect on where your trust is placed.
- Ask God to reveal areas where generosity can grow.
- Continue memorizing Psalm 24:1 throughout the week.
