

TALK IT OVER

I Want to Be a Supermodel

BOTTOM LINE

Heroes are the ones who model the role of a hero to the next generation.

CONVERSATION STARTER

Who is your favorite fictional hero? Why? Who is a real-life hero to you? Why?

THINGS TO CONSIDER

What did you hear?

What do you think?

What will you do?

KEY VERSES AND QUOTES

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
Psalm 90:12 NIV

Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So, we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary. 2 Corinthians 4:16-18 NIV

“Success is predicated on how well you to master the mundane. Every day can’t be a new routine. There’s always someone else who would love to be in your shoes. So don’t get bored and take them off.”
– Kevin Warren

The greatest quality of a hero isn’t that they are bold, boisterous, or loud. It’s that when there is no great act to perform, they still show up. And they show up faithfully. They aren’t looking for a “quick-fix.”

“A hero will not sacrifice someone’s tomorrow for his or her today.”
– Jonathan Wood

TALK IT OVER

How is every person a role model whether they want to be or not? Why do you think so few people actively work to be outstanding role models and heroes? What would it mean practically for you to “live beyond the end”? How can you better live for more than the big moments? What is mundane that you need to master? How are we tempted to let shame disguise our past? Why is it harmful? If a hero is defined by how well they pass the torch, how are you doing? What do you need to shore up? Where are you doing well? Who is getting your torch?
