

STUDENTS

Grades 6-8

Goal: Get the students to think of a difficult person in their lives and pray for them.

Verse: ⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor^l and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Video Questions

Part 1: What about that your difficult person makes them a difficult person to you?

Part 2: How does it make me feel to know that God wants me to love the difficult people in my life? Why do you feel that way?

How does it make you feel knowing that even when you are being a difficult person, God still loves you the exact same and commands others to love you the same?

Part 3: Who is a difficult person that you need to pray for? Take time to pray for them in your group right now and schedule a time for you to pray for them during the week.
